Associate Justice Hoge.—It will be seen by reference to our telegraphic columns, that the real cause of the hegira of Associate Ju tice Hoge is his fear of the negroes, who have been exasperated by his declaration, that he would like to have them all in a ten acre lot, and turn his old regiment loose to massacre

RUNAWAY .- The music of Skiff & Galord's Minstrel Troupe, at the Pavilion Hotel, frightened a horse attached to a furniture cart yesterday afternoon, and he started at a rapid rate. SKIFF & GAYLORD'S MINSTRELS.—The Theatre was crammed last night; scarcely a seat was vacant and many were compelled to stand. The fame of the troupe had preceded them, and every one was anxious to see and hear and enjoy a hearty laugh. The company is perfect in every detail, and the fund of amusement that is furnished is all that could be desired. The principle features last night were the great song and dance of McKee. The dancing was the essence of originality and brought down the house. The Hindoo mysteries were an amusing burlesque on the feats of legerdemain practiced by the magicians. The clog dance could not be excelled, as the actors moved and acted in unison, producing a bewildering effect. Master Willie Gaylord is, however, the greatest wonder of the troupe. He is only about twelve or engaged in making arrangements with the fourteen years of age, and his limbs are sup-General Government, and with some of the ple as India rubber. REGISTRATION .- Although it was well known that yesterday was the last day for the registration of voters for the Presidential electors, yet there was no crowd at the polls and no excitement. The largest number were registered at Ward 8, as that embraced all the territory to the Six-mile House. Several colored boys under twenty-one attempted to register, but were promptly refused by the managers, and doubtful cases were accepted until proof was furnished of their age. Below we give the returns for yesterday, and the total for the three days. The figures have been furnished each day by the managers and are correct:

SOUTH CAROLINA RAILEDAD COMPANY VS. COLUMBIA AND AUGUSTA RAILBOAD COMPANY. A motion was made before Justica Willard, a to Bina Givens, one of her neighbors. Bina few days ago, on behalf of the South Carolina Railroad Company for a temporary injunction against the Augusta and Columbia Railroad Company, to prevent the latter company from interfering with the roadbed and track of the former company, it being alleged, and the allegation supported by affidavits, that there was danger of such interference. NORTHERN CAPITAL IN THE PRESENT AND FU-TURE.—We publish below a private letter from Judge Force, of Cincinnati, to Governor Scott, on the subject of the Blue Ridge Railroad, for the purpose especially of calling attention to his statement of the reasons why Northern capitalists are indisposed to make investments in the South. The "turbulent feeling" of which Judge Force speaks is not as general as he has been led to believe, and with the close of the Presidential canvass will nearly, if not wholly, disappear. We know the necessity of developthe rising generation, over forty names being ing the resources of the country, and the time which has of late been given to pure politics will, in the future, be mainly devoted to the consideration of the best means of increasing Rechtensleth; H. Maas, Dorum; J. V. Oehsen, the quantity and value of our produce, of building mills and factories, and widening and deepening the ordinary channels of trade. The people of the South are growing more practical every day, and it will not take long to convince our friends in the West that peace and security, and the toleration of adverse opinions, are as general here as in the States of the West and CINCINNATI, October 3, 1868. Dear Friend: Before receiving your letter about the Blue Ridge Raitroad, I had written to Mr. Harrison about my ill-success in seeing bankers as to the prospect of disposing of its bonds or stock here. They say, as is true, that New York is the market for securities, and persons here who deal in stocks do so chiefly her making purchases or sails in New York by by making purchases or sales in New York by letter or telegraph.

Since then I have seen some business men of large capital, or rather men retired from business, whom I know well. They, do not teel inclined now to make investments in the South. The turbulent feeling there does not invite investments. Capital is a tender plant that roots in undisturbed soil. They wish to see the contract of the vestments. Capital is a tender plant that roots in undisturbed soil. They wish to see the people more inclined to develope the resources of the country, more inclined to work, and less absorbed in violent agitations. They do not look favorably on a region where immigrants are threatened with death or banishment for mere opinion sake. This banishing of people because they do not conform their opinions to THE FOLLOWING residents of Ward No. 6 are equested to call at my office for naturalization ple who are not to be entrusted with large business men, and seems to indicate a condition of people who are not to be entrusted with large business and the seems of the seem ple who are not to be entrusted with large business enterprises.

I repeat, without reserve, the view that businessimen take of the current vein of Southern feeling as indicated by the leading newspapers and the speeches of their leading men.

The election of Grant. I hope, will introduce a change. We look to that to bring about peace, order, moderation, acquiescence in law, and, consequently, increased attention to industrial pursuits, and, hence, prosperity.

I want to see your railread built. I should like much to see it completed through your like much to see it completed through your instrumentality. When you come on I shall try what I can to forward your wishes.
